Mike and Rose Morgan grew up in the Northwest of England on a small peninsula near Liverpool. Rose gained her experience in culinary school and the restaurant business, concentrating in her love of pastries. The two met on a bus Mike drove, he fell in love with Rose's large brown eyes and her pastries. They visited the United States in 1989 and several times thereafter, gaining more new friends and acquaintances with each visit.

They decided to settle and start a business in England but friends here persuaded them to return and start Central Perc in Dayton.

Founded upon imagination, the love of good coffee, and lots of hard work, the doors of Central Perc were opened on April 15, 1996.

At first, their intentions were to concentrate mainly on the sale of coffee. The name "Central Perc" reflects the initial intention. After reflecting upon the surrounding area, Mike and Rose decided there was a need to expand the menu and become the cafe you are now enjoying.

Because every plate is specifically prepared for you with care and attention, please be patient.
